HAPPY NEW YEAR

TO YOU ALL!

(DON'T STAND UNDER THE MISTLETOE ~~ UNLESS YOU WANT A KISS~

FOR THE FOLKS 'ROUND HERE-HAVE AN AIM QUITE CLEAR-

AND THEY HARDLY EVER MISS!)

SERVICEMAN'S CORNER:

Whoooooie! Christmas has come and gone---and I'm about gone, too! What a hectic week! Oh well, only 364 days until Xmas---thank Heavens!

Seems so good to see so many of you fellows home for Christmas--but wish we could have seen ALL of you guys! Imagine how BIG our little ol' town is going to be on the day ALL SIXTY-FIVE of you are home again!

Among the boys who dropped in here to wish us a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year are Bob Tann, USMC--on 15 days leave before assignment to Camp Pendleton----Mickey Hunter--on leave from San Diego--Mansel Roland, who must be back at his AF base in Colorado in seven days--Rowboat Owens, from Sheppard AF base in Texas,---Bob Mink, from Keesler AF base in Biloxi, Mississippi--Dave Wilson, Army--from Fort Ord---Sgt. Keith Johnson, from Foamoom AF base in Japan---Jerry Crowley, Army, from Okinawa---and Curt Richards, Navy, from San Diego.

And then, we got some more cards from Bob Carty in North Carolina--a card, picture, and letter from Buck Shulda 'way over there in Germany--and a card from Mickey Hunter, before reporting back to the USMC at San Diego. Thanks, fellows, for all the lovely cards and letters and well-wishes. Bob Carty's card reminded us that he is now a SGT. instead of a PFC or CPL--as we've been addressing his Bylines! Congratulations, Bob. Buck's letter, which has "please don't print" on it, accompanied his picture, and gave us much pleasure. He is a very nice kind thoughtful fellow, and we miss him very much!

Well, gang--gotta hang up the phone and get busy---my family HAS to eat, you know--although I don't know where they are going to put any FOOD, after yesterday's candy and nuts and apples and oranges and stuffed dates and Lord knows what else! Christmas--! Some people act like it's EATmus! 'Bye now--and sorry about the delay on the Bylines. Can't catch up with you until our supply house supplies us with some more of those manila envelopes! So don't be surprised if you get three or four weeks' Bylines, ALL TO ONCE!

----your editor, GLADYS REECE.

QUOTE:--The saddest moment in a man's life; when he asks his wife what they're having for dinner--and she replies-"My family". ---by Kon Murray

LION'S CLUB NEWS:

Last Saturday morning's Christmas Party for the kids of Brisbane, at the local theater, was deemed quite a success by all concerned. Some 353 howling, squealing, yelling kids descended upon the theater at 10 a.m., to be greeted by Santa Claus, and handed a sack of candy and fruit, and to enjoy cartoons, comedies, and two free bicycles, given away to two lucky youngsters. The boy's bike was won by Michael Grimes, of 450 Alvarado Street, while the girl's bike went to Katherine O'Brien, of 503 Alvarado.

The committee in charge of the affair worked far into the night on Tuesday of last week, sacking up the more than 400 bags of candy and fruit.

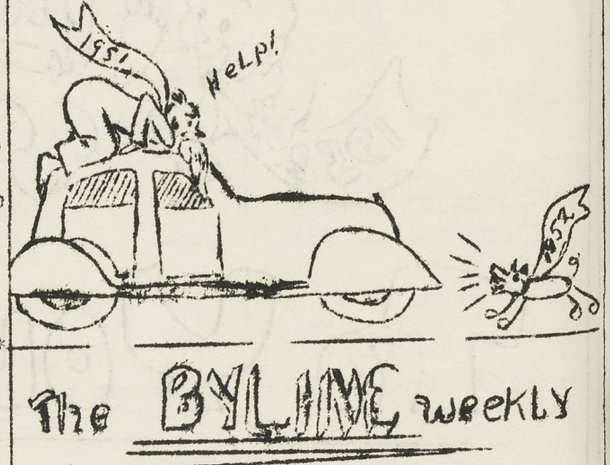

The annual Christmas Dinner (and Lady's Night) was held at the Legion Hall on Wednesday, December 19th, with most of the local Lions and their Ladies enjoying fried chicken and all the trimmings. Santa also made an appearance there, with small gifts for the Lions and Lionesses.

H. Earle Woodard, secretary of the Brisbane Lions Club, wishes to take this opportunity to thank all the kids who came to Saturday morning's theater party, and to thank all who cooperated in making this year's party the success it was. He extends Season's Greetings and a HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL, from the Lion's Club.

The winners of the annual outdoor lighting contest will be announced in the next issue of this paper. A beautiful cup, donated by Dick Schroeder, and cash prizes, will be given out some time this week.

BRISBANE GIRL OVERCOME BY FUMES:

Betty Mayer, 15, and Mrs. Albert Lorendo, of 227 Mendocino Street, had a narrow escape from gas asphyxiation in the Lorendo home on Thursday of last week.

The girl was overcome by fumes, and Mrs. Lorendo was partially overcome. A floor heater had been lighted at six a.m., and apparently became extinguished, for gas fumes started seeping through the house. Mrs. Lorendo, noticing Betty's condition, also found herself being overcome but managed to telephone neighbors who came to her assistance. The Brisbane Volunteer Fire Department was notified.

Fire Marshall Richard Sioss and Fire Chief Lou Terry gave first aid, and then rushed Betty Mayer to South San Francisco Hospital for further treatment. Shortly after, she was sufficiently recovered to be returned to the Lorendo home.

VISITOR FROM "THE CITY":

The Warren L. Rocco homestead is being brightened this week by the presence of Rose (Jorrie) Hickey, of San Francisco. Husband Sam Hickey sailed for unknown ports on Christmas Eve.

THREE ORPHANS INJURED AT BRISBANE:

Three orphans, visiting in a Brisbane home for the Christmas holidays, were injured in a traffic accident last week.

The California Highway Patrol reported that Morris Bend, 55, of 209 San Francisco Avenue, Brisbane, was turning onto Bayshore Hiway from Brisbane, when his car was struck by a south-bound car driven by Tom N. Ting, of San Francisco. Bend's car overturned, and the three orphans, Lester (13), Tommy, (11) and Woody (8), Fitzsimmons, all of the St. Vincent's Orphanage at San Rafael, suffored cuts and bruises which were treated at South San Francisco Hospital.

Bend had brought the children to his home from the Orphanage, and had planned an elaborate Christmas for them. Their injuries did not halt the Christmas plans.

After striking Bend's car, Ting's automobile careened across the highway and hit a car driven by Allison J. McNay, Jr., of 1441 Hull Drive, San Carlos, who had stopped for the red light.

FICHERA'S FREE SHOW FOR KIDS BIG SUCCESS:

All the kids in town, and some from far off places--from the looks of the full to overflowing theater last Monday--got the surprise of their lives, and had the merriest Christmas ever, because of the generosity of one of Brisbane's citizens. Mr. and Mrs. Jay Fichera, of 154 San Benito Road, hosted at a gigantic Christmas party at the Brisbane Theater last Monday, Dec. 24th. At the big free afternoon show, the kids were delighted with a beautiful stage show, cartoons, and a truly delightful picture entitled "The Guest".

Frank King acted as Master of Ceremonies, introducing such acts as Bunnie Carrol's Teddy Bears (song and dance act with at least twenty lovely little girls in costumes)--the Bunnie Carrol Coeds, dancing to "Jingle Bells"--little Kathy Soladay, in an acrobatic solo--Bunnie Carrol's Cuties, a tap routine starring Mary Soladay, Vesta Calijner, and Sue Lycetta--the Struttin' Darlings, doing "I'll be down to get you in my Scooter, Honey"---the Bunnie Carrolettes, doing a soft-shoe routine, and starring Charlene Smith, Carol Priosly, and "Evie"---a song and dance routine called "Alice Blue Dress" featuring four year old Susan Hall---Old MacDonald and his Scarecrows, featuring Ruth Brown, Leon Rogers, Sparky Sparkman, Ellen Petrinko, Elsie Rook, Evie Sandini, Shiela Tann, and Barbara Kohler---Bugs Bunny, who was really Gail Smith in Bunny costume---Puzzy Firth in a vibraharp solo--and "That Old Soft-Shoe", starring Billy June Housley and Marylyn Soladay.

The Cub Scouts of Pack #134 opened the show singing Christmas Carols, under the supervision of Mrs. Byron Jensen. Members of the Fire Department and Boy Scout Troop #134, (some of them also of Blair's Rangers), helped in seating the many youngsters. So many children, accompanied by a few parents, were left without seats that some of the kiddies had to sit two and three in a seat. But all enjoyed themselves immensely--and were rewarded for their good behavior when Santa Claus arrived on the scene with many bags of goodies for them.

All-in-all, it was a very successful afternoon, followed by a free show at seven in the evening for the adults. Most of us adults had kiddies in the show, so we managed to find niches and corners to hide in while the show was going on-(in the doorways, we parents were stacked three deep--and in the aisles, some of the bigger boys sat on the floor!).

Mr. Jay Fichera, who sponsored the whole show, has asked the Byline to extend his thanks to all who helped to make his wonderful party the success it was. The Byline would like to take this opportunity to thank MR. & MRS. FICHERA, for the good time our kiddies had at that party!

"SGT. GLENN" COMES HOME:

We have just heard that Sgt. Bob Glenn, who has been in a hospital in Japan for quite some time, walked in on Christmas Eve, surprising his mother, Mrs. Kay Ivey, of 171 San Benito Road, almost into "fits"! Seems that Sgt. Glenn hadn't mentioned that he might be home for Christmas. He will now undergo treatment at one of the veteran hospitals in the Bay area.

HOLIDAY HIGHLIGHTS (from Coronet):

For many years, a famed film figure has solved the problem of what to give people who "have everything", with the following: Go down to a poor neighborhood. Take along the sum you intended to spend for Christmas. Go to any small grocery, any doctor or dentist in the neighborhood. Ask who is farthest behind in his bill--preferably someone about to be cut off from credit. Pay that bill, or part of it. Make a note of the name and address of the beneficiary. Send the fellow who "has everything" a Christmas card. Write on it, "You have paid $10 on the account of John Doe, who is the father of five children, and was $30 behind on his food, doctor, or dentist bill. Merry Christmas".

* * * * * * * * * * * * *

George Jessel brought his young daughter Jorilynn, to a Christmas party at the home of some friends. They admired Jorilynn's conduct and the speed with which she obeyed all of her father's suggestions. "How do you do it?" an envious parent asked him. "How do you get her to obey you?"

"The same as I do with big girls," Jessel shrugged. "I talk loud, and carry a big wallet!"

QUOTES: "Note from an art critic's column; they couldn't find the artist, so they hung his picture."---Froth.

"Today's wolves are those awful things with two legs and eight hands"--Marie Wilson. "Last night our high-school band played Beethoven. Beethoven lost."
